Dedicated To Excellence

WHILE PROVIDING A BROAD RANGE OF LEGAL SERVICES to its clients, Laufer, Knapp, Dalena, Trimboli & Cadicina, LLC has long been recognized as one of the premier family law firms in New Jersey. Joseph P. Cadicina, Jennifer L. McInerney and Kimberly N. Gronau Boyd, who have been named to New Jersey Rising Stars for the third consecutive year, have built a reputation for successfully representing their clients in all types of matrimonial matters, including complex divorce litigation, adoption, mediation, domestic partnerships, custody, domestic violence and premarital agreements. In addition to bringing commitment and youthful energy to their practices, they also bring substantial litigation experience.

Joseph P. Cadicina was recently named the managing partner of Laufer Knapp. In addition to his litigation practice, he performs divorce mediation for clients. He is a court-approved economic mediator in family law cases and serves as an early settlement panelist for the court. Cadicina served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Mark M. Russello, J.S.C., family division, Bergen County. He is a barrister in the Northern New Jersey Family Law Inns of Court and serves on the board of directors for the Northern New Jersey American Heart Association and its Gala committee.

Jennifer L. McInerney, a partner in the firm since 2005, provides balance in her litigation style—she is compassionate when dealing with her clients' emotions but an aggressive advocate inside the courtroom. Although experienced in all areas of family law,

McInerney is especially known for her appellate practice and domestic violence litigation. She served a judicial clerkship in the Superior Court, family part. She volunteers as an early settlement panelist for the family court in Morris County and also provides pro bono legal representation to battered women and children through the Battered Women's Legal Advocacy Project.

Kimberly N. Gronau Boyd has practiced family law exclusively since serving a judicial clerkship. Her tireless work ethic and devotion to her clients earned her a partnership within five years of joining the firm. Gronau Boyd's extensive litigation experience ranges from premarital agreements to custody and relocation matters. She provides pro bono legal representation to battered women through the Battered Women's Legal Advocacy Project, volunteers for the Legal Clinic at County College of Morris, is an expert panelist for the Morris County Early Settlement Program, and is also a member of the Junior League of Morristown.

The firm's dedicated team of partners, associates and support staff is trained to provide a comprehensive approach that is both cost-effective and efficient.
